

Consumer Cooperatives in Europe

Responsible Business for a better World

Business

Success

Food

Environment

Sustainable

Diverse

Climate

Consumer Cooperatives

Ownership

Gender

Democracy

Fair

Members

Information

Education

Community

Social

Business

SOK Finland - have a 46% market share with 84% of all households are co-operative members.

Coop Estonia have a 20% market share, 60% of the population having Coop customer Card.

... and more ...

Business

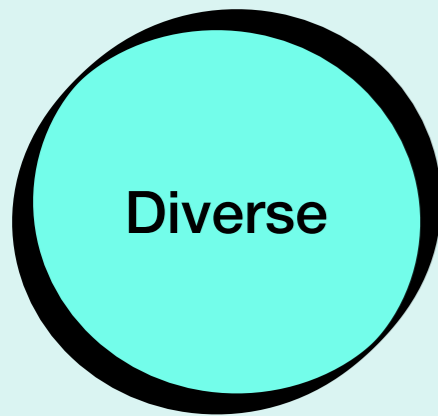

The Co-operative Group reformed its governance and established a Members Council to give the members a strong voice.

In Italia the Coop Alleanza 3.0 was formed by three consumer co-ops, represents now 2,5 million members

... and more ...

Business

Coop Bulgaria runs 8 coop Hotels, the only specialized hospital for rehabilitation in the country and factories for mineral water, honey, tea and rose oil.

Comarine Cyprus is among the national leaders in shipping and tourism.

... and more ...

Members

Coop Netherlands has consumer members and independent shop-owner as franchises as members - all have a voice in the governance.

Coop Romania is structured in three tiers - local, regional, national, based on the one member-one vote principle, thus guaranteeing transparency and equality governance at all three levels.

... and more ...

Members

Coop Italia has designed a laboratory - The Electronic Nose - which can detect the origin of products' ingredients.

SOK Finland became the first member to return to its members all data about their consumption and carbon footprint.

... and more ...

Members

Coop Ukraine operates two universities, two institutes and 20 colleges, where they teach 20.000 students in 23 specialties. This includes 9 disciplines in co-operative subject.

Centrosoyus Russia operates three universities with 21 regional branches and 38 colleges, providing 92 disciplines of secondary education to 70.000 students

... and more ...

Sustainable

Hispacoop and Eroski have undertaken numerous campaigns to reduce the food waste

Coop Denmark is the country's first retailer to eliminate the twelve most dangerous chemicals („The Dirty Dozen“) from their +3.500 private label products.

... and more ...

Sustainable

Coop Sweden named most sustainable retailer in 2016 and most sustainable brand in 2018 in the country. Redefined short supply chains by introducing in-store cultivation.

Coop Czech developed a leading environmental program in the country. Aims are to reduce and to sort generated waste. For this they produce special Eco-carrier bags.

... and more ...

Sustainable

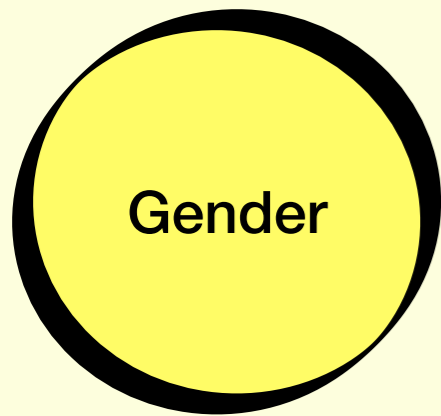

Greenpeace Energy produces and delivers „green“ energy to its consumer members.

Eroski operates Europe's first energy-neutral supermarket based on both the introduction of energy-efficient systems and the generation of energy from renewable sources.

... and more ...

Social

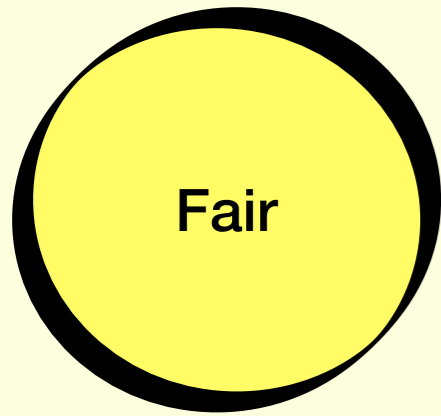

Samkaup, KSK/Coop Iceland has been formally certified to meet the requirements of the equal pay standard ÍST 85: 2012 and the permission to use the equal pay label 2019 – 2022 in Iceland.

Coop Norway is the leading sponsor of the national women's football league, campaigning for equal pay in the sport.

... and more ...

Social

Coop Jednota, market leader, is also the biggest seller of local produce, guaranteeing a fair price and market access to thousands of producers.

Coop Denmark is very active in the field of ethical trade. With „Savannah“ they have direct contact to producers and take care to fulfill high social and ecological standards.

... and more ...

Social

Hungarian consumer co-ops supports the homes for children with special needs in each of the 20 municipalities. And they operates a foundation to help children in poverty.

The Co-operative Group has launched an initiative, called "Save our spaces", in which it pledges to help support and improve 2,000 at-risk community spaces by 2022

... and more ...

Let's make it visible that
(and why) - we are the good ones!

